MEMORANDUM

TO: Chief of Station,
Heidelberg

FROM: FEM and VTO

REFERENCE: MEM-003-1129a

SUBJECT: WACHTER Hermann Georg Ernst

Wachter

There is no record of subject or references, other than the following imprudent traces which are being forwarded for what they may be worth:

1. WACHTER, Obergfr. XI-7001, interrogation report of J. HANSEN of 22 May 1946, shows this man as a clever technical W/T engineer with Kom. 130, who prepared W/T agents being sent on missions. Described as follows: Born approximately 1915; height 1.70 m; weight 65/70 kg.; brown hair; gray eyes; very pale complexion; clean-shaven, and wore uniform; spoke some French.
2. Mr. and Mrs. J. WACHTER, subjects of an article by John HUNTER in P.M., 15 November 1942, which reported J. WACHTER as one of ten German officials charged with greatest war guilt by Polish provisional government in London. THE-41 of 3 September 1946 states that J. WACHTER succeeded Dr. LISCHE as governor of Galicia until evacuated. Other information indicates that WACHTER and his wife looted a church in Wismar and Mrs. WACHTER visited the museums in Cracow looking for objects to decorate her home; that J. WACHTER was mayor of Cracow in 1939 and 1940 and one of Governor General FRANK's closest collaborators, being high Nazi official for Lublin (1941) where the massacres of Jews took place.
